INTRODUCTION

Nowadays, there are a lot of viruses or bacteria that surrounded us, such as covid-19, influenza, and many more, but people are busy with their work and didn't manage to have time to take care of themselves by having a balanced diet or even exercising to boost their immune system. Hence in 2021, the covid-19 pandemic occurs, and a lot of people got covid-19 with serious symptoms and also side effects. Some of them even have difficulty in breathing, as you can see in the pic, a healthy lung may have enough oxygen that transport into the bloodstream but for a covid-19 scarred lung, the lungs a full of darkness which means that there is less oxygen transporting into the bloodstream and this will cause a lack of the oxygen in every single part of the cell or even brain, this may lead to cerebral hypoxia or even worst it may cause a stroke to the person.
